Further enquiries made at the Swiss Consulate ascertained that the three years old female child as mentioned in the preceding diaries is recognised as an American and registered in the Consulate as Carol A. Sanborn. The Yoh Sing Flour Mill who ~~were~~ then taking temporary care of the child requested the Consulate to make necessary arrangements as to the disposal of this child.

Mr. Croset of the Swiss Consulate has been communicated with and he agreed to accept the child into the Consulate's care pending further instructions from the H.I.J.M. Consulate. At 4 p.m. 27-4-43 this child was taken to the Swiss Consulate and Mr. Croset in turn sent her to St. Joseph's Convent, French Concession pending instructions from the Japanese Authorities.

On 27-5-43 an inquest was held in the public Mortuary on the body of the deceased when the following verdict was handed down by Procurator Hsia Mei Sung:-

"Death due to fire burns. Body to be removed by the representative from Foh Sing Flour Mill, named Chu Zai Yee, for burial."

On 30-3-43 Mr. N. Buergin of the Swiss Consulate came to station and requested the assistance of police to visit the 3 years old child, as mentioned in the first diary, who is now under the temporary care of Mr. See Foh Hou (史復侯), assistant manager of the Foh Sing Flour Mill. Necessary assistance was rendered and Mr. Buergin stated that he will make arrangements with Japanese Authorities to send the child to camp to stay with the father James Gordon Sanborn. He will inform the Police before the child is taken away.

March 26 1943.

Death of A Female Chinese who Married to an American.

Sir:-

At 11:40 p.m. 25-3-43 a telephone message was received at the station from St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Avenue Road reporting that a female Chinese had been admitted from No. 5 West Soochow Road and detained in the hospital suffering from burning.

Enquiries revealed that the injured person, namely,

Dao Ai Lee (陶爱丽), 37, Soochow, m/female, No. 5 West Soochow Road, known as Mrs. Allie Sanborn.

was knitting some woollen article in her quarters at the Foh Sing Flour Mill No. 2 at No. 5 West Soochow Road at about 10 p.m. 25-3-43 when her evening gown caught fire from a nearby electric heater and simultaneously spreaded all over her clothing. She raised an alarm and a mill coolie woo Ah Foh (吴阿福) responded to and managed to extinguish the fire on her clothing. However, she had then been badly burned and was immediately conveyed to St. Elizabeth's Hospital for treatment as afore-mentioned. Dr.'s chit:- "Burn, 2nd degree, entire body."

At 7 a.m. 26/3/43 St. Elizabeth's Hospital telephoned to the station and reported that the above mentioned injured female had died at 3.30 a.m. 26/3/43. Death Certificate:- "Admitted with 2nd degree burn of whole body, died at 3.30 a.m. 26/3/43."

Further enquiries revealed that the now deceased was married to an American named James Gordon Sanborn, age 78, head miller of Foh Sing Flour Mill No. 2 & 8 West Soochow Road. They lived together in the quarters on the mill premises. On 3/3/43 J.G. Sanborn reported to the concentration camp and since then the now deceased lived in the quarters alone with her 3 years old daughter.

Mr. Wurster of the Swiss Consulate (now taking care of the American affairs) was communicated with who stated that though the now deceased was married to an American she was not recognised as an American citizen. She was in possession of a Chinese C.C. No. 76134 issued by Pootoo Road District. The now deceased has no relative or close friend in Shanghai and the 3 years old daughter is now temporary under the care of the Foh Sing Flour Mill. Mr. Wurster further stated that there is no record in the Swiss Consulate regarding this child but he requested a copy of this report be supplied to him so as he will communicate with her father who is now in concentration camp as to the child's disposal.

Japanese Gendarmerie, Gordon Road Branch, informed.

Body of the now deceased had been removed to Public Mortuary pending an inquest to be held a.m. 27/3/43 when representative of the Foh Sing Flour Mill, Mr. Chu Zai Yee (朱在宜), will attend to take care of the burial of the body.

Foul play not suspected.
